The Stones of Columcille "Myth and Mystery"

Stones are guides and connect to the Source of Creation in the beginning timeless spirit of consciousness.

Joining stars to stars,
 age to age.

Come dance with the stones.

Touch them.

Hear their songs.

Prepare to enter realms unknown.

Journey well.

And may the Spirit of Oneness of all

awaken your memory
 and connect you to the Mysterious Source.

Enter through the Infinity Gate and journey at your own risk!

As you journey, please respect the natural beauty and integrity of the sites and spaces that have been called forth here. We ask that you leave behind only the memory of your presence and the energy of your spirit, rather than human-made artifacts and foreign objects. If you feel called to shape a sacred space, please consider joining the Company of Columcille, so that your vision may be woven together with the story of the land and with the full membership that is committed to maintaining & mentoring this land and those who pass through it.
